

Fig. S1. (E) Cutaneous bullous LE (patient 2). (F and G) Histopathological aspect of a labial lesion showing dermal/epidermal cleavage with neutrophils accumulated within the cleft and in dermal papilla (haematoxylin and eosin, original magnification $\times 100$ and $\times 250$, respectively).