

Fig. S1. Palpable and haemorrhagic purpuric eruption found on the lower extremities (Case 2) (A). Direct immunofluorescence staining of the skin lesion reveals C3 deposition in the affected vessels (B).