

Fig. S1. Standard of care in Münster. Patient-reported outcomes (PRO) are assessed electronically by several questionnaires on quality of life and pruritus course. Data are imported into the patient's clinical information system (CIS) and electronic health record (EHR). The questionnaire scores are immediately calculated. The physician can analyse the pre-visit data and identify current issues. Data gathered during the visit are directly entered into the EHR.