

Fig. S1. Clinical phenotypes. A–C. Case 1 has generalised intermediate blisters and crusts, and dystrophic toe nails. D–F. Case 2 has only occasional acral blisters, normal nails and severe enamel defects.