

Fig. S1. Clinical features during and after therapy. (a) Keratoacanthoma-like lesion on the left thigh during electrochemotherapy (ECT). (b) Marks from needle electrodes 17 days after a single session of ECT. (c) Complete response one year following treatment. (d) Confocal image showing regular and broadened honeycomb pattern with no irregularly shaped keratinocytes.