

Fig. S1. Pathological examination of skin biopsy showed a dense infiltrate of neutrophils in the dermis without tumour cells or visible pathogenic agents (haematoxylin and eosin stain (H&E), original magnification $\times 200$).