Debate: Give Us Debate!

As you read Forum for Nordic Dermato-Venereology, what crosses your mind? Do any of the articles make you react? Do you agree or disagree with the authors? Does the content trigger any emotions? Whatever the scenario, we would like to know. If it is the worst article you have ever read, we want to know. If your opinion on a subject differs from that of the author, we want to know. If it is an excellent and well-written article, we want to know. You needn't write an extensive communication; a few lines to the editorial office will be great. The short comments we receive from you help us to continue to improve Forum.
