

Fig. S1. Skin biopsy: (a) mild perivascular infiltrate in the superficial dermis (haematoxylin ploxylene saffron staining), (b) immunostaining with anti-CD-31, (c) immunostaining with anti-D2-40 showing lymphatic vessels in the biopsy from the patient, and (d) a control (mammoplasty).