

Fig. S1. Intraepidermal spongiotic vesicles and marked oedema in the papillary dermis in the arm. There was also a slight superficial perivascular lymphocytic infiltrate, accompanied by occasional eosinophils. Haematoxylin and eosin staining (H&E) $\times 20$.