

Fig. S2. (a) Computed tomography (CT) scan before treatment with a combination of antibacterial agents showed bilateral multiple nodules with cavitation (dotted circles) and large pleural effusion (arrowheads). (b) CT scan 2 months after the start of treatment showed drastic improvement in the lesions in the lungs.