

Fig. S2. Course of wound healing with anticoagulation. Course of wound healing before (a–d), 5 weeks (e–h), 22 weeks (i–l) and 13 months (m–p) after first treatment with low-molecular-weight heparin. Note the ischaemia and necrosis (b,f) at the beginning and almost complete healing after thirteen months of treatment with anticoagulation (m–p).