

Fig. S1. Quantitative analysis of proinflammatory cytokines found in paediatric and adult psoriatic skin. (A) Tumour necrosis factor (TNF)- α ($p < 0.001$) and (B) interleukin (IL)-17a ($p = 0.043$) levels are significantly increased and decreased in paediatric psoriatic skin, respectively, compared with those in adult psoriatic skin.