

Fig. S1. An 86-year-old woman with metastatic Merkel cell carcinoma. (a) Subcutaneous metastasis in the left cheek and left cervical lymph node (LN) metastasis (black circle). (b) Subcutaneous metastasis in the left cheek and metastasis in the left cervical LN decreased in size after treatment (black circle). (c), (d) Right cervical lymph node metastasis (yellow circle). (e), (f) Right cervical lymph node metastasis decreased in size after treatment (yellow circle).