

Fig. S3. Kaplan–Meier overall survival estimates over treatment (surgery (surgical), radiation therapy (radiation) and systemic therapy (systemic)) modality combinations regarding patients with metastatic cutaneous squamous cell carcinoma. Calculated from the diagnosis of first metastasis. There is a statistically significant difference between the surgical therapy alone (surgical) and combined surgery and radiation therapy subcohorts (surgical + radiation) ($p < 0.001$).