

Fig. S1. Number of patients with atopic dermatitis with dupilumab-associated conjunctivitis (DAC) in relation to administration time-points of dupilumab. DAC occurred and ended from 1 to 4 months after the initiation of dupilumab administration in most of the cases. Horizontal axis indicates the duration from the dupilumab initiation.